

DEATH OF NOAH H. ENGLE

Father of Marshall Engle Died Suddenly This Morning.

(From Thursday's Daily.)
Rev. Noah H. Engle passed away suddenly at his home on West Fourth street this morning at 7 o'clock, in his eighty-sixth year. Mr. Engle arose a bit earlier than usual, made his toilet and dressed with his customary precision, and in the act of drawing his easy chair to the stove fell to the floor and without recovering consciousness died in the arms of his daughter, Miss Mamie, before the physician and the nearby members of the family could arrive. The three sons, H. G., J. G., and W. G. Engle live in or near Abilene. Mrs. C. S. Kraybill, Mrs. G. W. Minick, Miss Anna, and Miss Mamie, of Abilene, and Mrs. W. S. (Martha) Bowman of Arkansas City, are the daughters.

The funeral will be announced later, the time of burial being contingent upon replies from eastern relatives.

Mrs. Engle who has been an invalid for many years, and who displayed admirable fortitude, survives her husband. They came with their family from Frederick City, Md., forty-one years ago.

Obituary, Noah Engle.

Noah Hoover Engle was born at Mount Joy, Pa., May 18, 1834 and died at his home in Abilene, Kansas, February 19, 1920, aged 85 years, 9 months and 3 days.

He was married to Martha Engle Graybill at Maytown, Pennsylvania, on November 23, 1858. To this union twelve children were born.

The first years of their married life were spent in Pennsylvania. Later they moved to Frederick, Md., and after a residence there of thirteen years came to Dickinson county forty-one years ago, where they have since resided.

He is survived by his wife, 8 children, 29 grand children, 5 great grand children, two sisters and three brothers who mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband, father, grand father and brother.

The funeral occurred Sunday. The brief service at the home was conducted by Rev. C. O. Musser. The funeral home, Mr. Schmutz and Dr. Mera sang two impressive selections. At 3 o'clock, following a more extended service at the Newborn church, conducted by Bishop J. N. Engle, and Elder W. M. Myers of Ohio, interment occurred in the Newborn cemetery.

The young people of the Newborn community, where the deceased lived for more than a quarter of a century, sang old and appropriate hymns. The audience of sympathizing friends and neighbors crowded the church. Mrs. Engle who has been for some years an invalid could not accompany the funeral party from Abilene.

Mr. Engle shared in an unusual degree, the confidence and affection of all ages and classes of people. He was a simple-minded, gentle man of homely virtues and refined tastes. With no pretense to learning he possessed unusual knowledge of nature's secrets and of the on-goings of a rapidly changing world. His flowers, his garden and his apiary afforded him the diversion and that contact with nature which doubtless added to his length of life. His sudden taking away without sickness or warning was in harmony with his hope and wish.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE MET

Convention Called to Select Delegates For County.

The Republican county committee met at the court house at 2 o'clock with a good attendance. The session was called to select a time for holding the county convention which is to select 16 delegates to the district and 16 delegates to the state convention which are to be held next month. H. G. Kyle, chairman, presided and W. C. Grigg is secretary.

The sentiment among the committee is that the county never was so strongly Republican as now and they said that the voters are just waiting for a chance to vote against the wasteful extravagance that has raised their taxes and thrown away the people's money.

NO TAX ON LIBERTY BONDS

But People Pay For Part of Year They Didn't Own Them.

Liberty bonds are exempt from taxation in Kansas, this year as always, but holders of such bonds who purchased them since May, 1919, will be assessed the amount paid for the bonds for that part of the tax year they didn't own the bonds. This is a recent ruling of the tax commission given to the county clerks and assessors, and is in accordance with the Kansas statute passed in 1917 covering such cases. The tax commission is getting numerous complaints these days from persons who understand it has instructed the assessors to list Liberty bonds for taxation.

"The proposition is plain enough," said Sam T. Howe, chairman of the tax commission. "The legislature in 1917 passed an act providing that the money paid for government bonds exempt from taxation during a tax year should be taxed as personal property during that part of the year and bonds were not owned. To illustrate. You buy a government exempt bond on February 1, say for $1,000. The bond is exempt from taxation, but you would be assessed on 11-12ths of $1,000 as of March 1. If you had owned it the entire tax year you would pay no taxes on it. If you owned it five months immediately preceding and including March 1, you would pay taxes on seven-twelfths of the amount. The law was passed to catch the tax dodgers who would put their cash into government bonds just before March 1 so as not to report money on hand to the assessor, and then transfer the bonds back into cash after the assessment was made.

"During the war this commission ruled that as persons who bought bonds were doing it for patriotic purposes, the assessors would be allowed to consider all Liberty bonds held on March 1 just as if they had been held the entire tax year. Now that the bonds are on the market as investments, and are being bought as such, we have simply returned to the old established rule on the subject."

TO HERINGTON ELEVATOR

C. E. Chase of Abilene Will Take Charge of Farmers Union Elevator. The directors of the Farmers Union of Herington have employed C. E. Chase of Abilene as manager of the elevator here. Mr. Chase was formerly manager of the Farmers Union at Abilene and is said to be a very capable man. He was selected from a large number of applicants. He is expected here, either next week or the week following. R. V. Diepenbroek has been acting as manager here since the death of Oscar Bowers.—Herington Times.

Sure Death to Corns

"Geta-It" Makes 'Em Lose Their Grip and Lift Off Painlessly.

The first thing "Geta-It" does when it lands on a corn or callus is to snuff out the pain. Then it shrivels the corn or callus and loosens it.

Seen, it is almost ready to fall off. You help it just a little by lifting it off with your thumb and finger. You don't even feel it, because there is no hurt left in it. Millions have proved it the cleanest, surest, safest and most pleasant method. "Geta-It," the never failing, guaranteed money-back corn remover costs but a trifle at any drug store. Mfg. by E. Obituary—Harry Sidesinger.

Harry Sidesinger was born in Sheridan county, Kansas, Nov. 14, 1900, and died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sidesinger in Abilene, Feb. 15, 1920, at the age of 13 years, 3 months, 1 day.

In 1915 he was baptized by the Rev. De Roe, since which time he has been a member of the Methodist church, and a faithful and regular attendant of the Sunday school.

Harry was one of the honor students in the Abilene junior high school where his scholarship, studiousness, faithfulness to every task assigned him and his unassuming, pleasant manners had won for him the high esteem of all his teachers and schoolmates.

The sudden closing of a life so young and promising was a shock to all with whom he had been so closely and pleasantly associated. During the four days of his illness all that loving care could do was done for the loved son and brother, but the young strength was not equal to the strain and slowly yielded. God called and the spirit peacefully took its flight. To mourn his death are left his father, mother and two brothers, Earl and Clarence, all of Abilene.

The abundance of beautiful flowers was a silent tribute of love and sympathy from his many friends. The funeral services at the home were conducted by the Rev. Howard of the Methodist church on Feb. 17, and the body was laid to rest in the Abilene cemetery.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation of kindness and sympathy shown in the death of our dear son and brother; also for the many beautiful flowers.—The family.

AUGUST KANDT INJURED

Car Was Hit by Engine at Herington Crossing.

August Kandt, who lives near Shadybrook, was hurt Tuesday evening when starting for his home, his car being hit by a Rock Island engine on the Walnut street crossing in Herington. The car was badly wrecked but managed to run home. Mr. Kandt was bruised and sustained severe cut on his face. He says he saw no watchman but heard a bell and was looking north to locate the engine when it came from the south and struck him.—Herington Sun.

ANNOUNCEMENT

THE WEEKLY KANSAS CITY STAR'S Presidential Survey for 1920

Another big, exclusive, up-to-the-second Star service—new—timely—informative. A close-up view of all the presidential aspirants—a searching study of their past records—a living, week-to-week panorama of all the great political camps.

The presidential campaign is on full tilt. Hats by the score are in the ring. Favorite sons are springing up everywhere. Booms are started overnight. The stage is being set for the big national conventions at Chicago and San Francisco. Conflicting factions are working day and night lining up their cohorts. Keynote speeches, party caucuses, primaries, are following fast upon each other. There are plots and counterplots, wire pulling, secret intrigue and open assaults. And still the full force of the storm is yet to come.

The issues are many. They touch each of us in a most personal and vital way. Labor problems, prohibition, the peace treaty, the League of Nations, the Mexican situation, universal training, the high cost of living, grain grading, dockage methods, farmers' organizations—such is the potpourri of interests and claims which have to be reconciled and harmonized by the leaders of the great political parties. How can either party work out a program that will be satisfactory to all wings and factions of its organization?

Straight from the Firing Line

The Kansas City Star has access to every authentic source of political information, not only through the established channels of the Associated Press and United Press, but through special services and its own exclusive correspondents, staff writers, photographers and artists.

At Washington, at the presidential conventions and at all the other political nerve centers Star men, trained in ferreting out political secrets and in getting to the right man at the right time, will be on duty gathering together the facts that are shaping the most remarkable political campaign in the history of America.
